The Philadelphia Contributionship Extends Partnership with Litigation Solutions, LLC for SIU & Fraud Services

June 28, 2010. Orlando, Florida. Litigation Solutions, LLC, a leader in Anti-Fraud and SIU services, announces a multi-year contract to provide all investigative services to the Philadelphia Contributionship.

“The Philadelphia Contributionship is committed to fighting fraud and extending to our customers the highest level of Special Investigative Services (SIU) available,” said Daniel Herdmann, Vice President, Claims at The Philadelphia Contributionship. “Our anti-fraud initiative will enhance our overall ability to identify suspect claims. Reducing fraud has a significant impact on cost, which ultimately leads to savings passed onto the policy-holders.”

The SIU services provided to The Philadelphia Contributionship include SIU compliance, state anti-fraud plan filings, surveillance, customized background investigative solutions and accredited fraud awareness training.

“As the national Account Executive for The Philadelphia Contributionship, I was honored to combine the strength of Litigation Solutions’ SIU Services with the long-standing reputation of The Philadelphia Contributionship,” commented David Nottoli, national Account Executive for Litigation Solutions, LLC.

“As a company, we are excited about the future to join forces with an organization such as The Philadelphia Contributionship,” stated Steve Cassell, Senior Vice President, Litigation Solutions, LLC. “It is wonderful to partner with a company that is an institution in the insurance industry.”

About The Philadelphia Contributionship

The Philadelphia Contributionship was founded in 1752 by Benjamin Franklin and a group of prominent citizens to insure themselves against losses from fire. More than 250 years later, the company offers far more than fire coverage, specializing in all areas of personal property insurance. The Philadelphia Contributionship remains the oldest, successful insurance company in the country today. A+ rated (Superior) by A.M. Best for ten consecutive years, the company combines a tradition of financial strength with a commitment to personalized claims and customer services to deliver tailored and comprehensive coverage for today's insurance needs.
